KENYATAAN MEDIA

KRPPM (APPGM) mengenai Pendanaan Politik sedia bekerjasama menggubal RUU Sumbangan Politik

Kuala Lumpur, 20 Mei 2022: APPGM mengenai Pendanaan Politik menerima dengan baik kenyataan daripada YAB Perdana Menteri semalam yang menyatakan komitmen kerajaan untuk menambah baik tadbir urus dan integriti dalam usaha memerangi rasuah.

Persetujuan untuk membentang skop dasar bagi RUU berkaitan pengawalseliaan sumbangan politik dalam Mesyuarat Jemaah Menteri adalah perkembangan yang amat baik memandangkan penggunaan wang dalam politik yang tidak terkawal merupakan salah satu daripada punca gejala rasuah semakin meruncing.

Sebagai sebuah badan yang diiktiraf Parlimen, APPGM sedia memainkan peranan sebagai wadah perbincangan mengenai pengawalseliaan sumbangan politik yang melibatkan pelbagai pihak termasuk Ahli Parlimen, Senator, organisasi masyarakat sivil (CSO) serta mana-mana pihak berkepentingan yang lain.

“Pada ketika ini, kami sedang meneliti undang-undang yang diguna pakai di negara-negara lain, serta cadangan-cadangan pakar berhubung RUU Pendanaan Politik yang sesuai bagi konteks demokrasi di Malaysia. Banyak kajian telah dilakukan sejak tahun 2009 oleh pakar yang juga merupakan ahli APPGM kami. Oleh itu, kami bersedia mengadakan pertemuan serta bekerjasama terutama dengan pihak Kerajaan bagi memastikan RUU ini dapat disiapkan serta dibentang di Parlimen pada masa yang terdekat. Pembentangan RUU ini tidak sepatutnya dilengahkan lagi, malah patut disegerakan demi kelestarian demokrasi negara kita,” kata YB Ahmad Fadhli Shaari, Pengerusi APPGM mengenai Pendanaan Politik.

“Kami yakin bahawa RUU ini satu langkah yang positif dalam memastikan demokrasi negara selamat daripada pengaruh luar mahupun kumpulan-kumpulan tertentu. RUU ini juga akan terus menambah baik usaha Malaysia membanteras rasuah di peringkat akar umbi.” kata YB Fadhli lagi.

MEDIA STATEMENT

APPGM on Political Financing open to collaborate on drafting the Political Donations Bill

Kuala Lumpur, 20 May 2022: The APPGM on Political Financing welcomes the statement from the Honourable Prime Minister yesterday regarding the government's commitment to improving governance and integrity in efforts to combat corruption.

The agreement to table the policy stance of the political financing Bill in the Cabinet Meeting is timely considering that the uncontrolled usage of money in politics has become one of the most serious causes of corruption.

As an officially recognised entity under Parliament, the APPGM provides a platform for discussion regarding the monitoring of political donations between different stakeholders such as Members of Parliament (MPs), Senators, civil society organisations (CSOs), and other parties of interest.

"At this time, we are studying the laws that have been implemented in other countries as well as other recommendations that have been forth by other experts. Extensive research on this topic has been done since 2009 by experts who are also members of this APPGM. Thus, we are open to engage and collaborate with government to ensure this Bill can be drafted and tabled in Parliament as soon as possible. The tabling of this Bill should not be delayed further and must be expedited for the maturing of our democracy," says YB Ahmad Fadhli Shaari, Chair of the APPGM on Political Financing.

"We are confident that this Bill presents a positive step in ensuring our democracy is protected not only from foreign influences, but from other powerful groups as well. Furthermore, this Bill is a fundamental part in Malaysia's efforts to fight corruption at its very core," ends YB Ahmad Fadhli.
